GETS SALARY RAISED AS HER XMAS PRESENT

Christmas time brings a message of cheer from the attorney general's office to Miss Lucy Nash, superintendent of the Gila county schools, the office notifying the superintendent yesterday that her salary is up one notch and that the notch dates back to March 26, 1919.

The classification of Gila county, and the consequent amount of salary due the county's school superintendent, had been in doubt pending the determination of an act of the last legislature. P. J. K. McBride, assistant attorney general, yesterday rendered a decision to the effect that Chapter 162 of the session laws of 1919 determining the classification of counties for the purpose of fixing the salaries of county officers and their deputies is effective and that it dates from March 26, 1919, as was provided by the emergency clause.

The attorney general made the report in reply to the superintendent's request for information, the request making no mention of the amount of salary involved, but stating that the classification of the county was at issue.

AMUSEMENTS

"Oh Baby" Coming to Elks.
Some wit once said that "life is just one darn thing after another." This observation is apropos to "Oh Baby," the famous current vehicle of the more famous Marcus Show which, comes with the most famous Marcus Peaches to the Elks on December 31 and January 1. If there is anything missing in "Oh Baby" no doubt A. B. Marcus, her sponsor, would welcome a suggestion.

To be sure, there are no dull moments in "Oh Baby," but this novelty will quite likely not detract from the pleasure of the hosts who have set their hearts on seeing the big attraction.

A stage full of beautiful maids, bedecked with lavishness that harkens to a figure like a wa rloan, dancing and singing, are one moment in the spot light's glare to give way in a trice to a trio of buffoons in ludicrous endeavor, who in turn pass to make way for a delightful melodist. And thus it goes through two acts and seventeen scenes, truly a kaleidoscope of entertainment.

The patrons are warned not to look for a plot. Aside from the physical requirements of stage settings and costume changing "Oh Baby" could be run in reverse order and make an equally presentable entertainment. One needs no libretto to laugh at the comic episodes, marvel at the exotic dance creations, admire the charming girls or be enraptured by the haunting melodies of "Oh Baby."

The mission of the Marcus Show is to make the world happier. Therein is its alpha and omega. It is indeed a big, clean, generous entertainment for all the family.

FEDERALS DEFEAT VILLISTAS

The battle is said to have lasted several hours. According to a report sent to the office of the Mexican secretary of war, General Murgula has sent a number of units to cut off the retreat of the rebels into the neighboring state of Chihuahua. No estimate of the losses of either side was given.
